"Whatever it is that you're facing, you don't have to face it alone." (Movie quote)

Dove and Grammy Award Winner, Rebecca St. James is starring in a new movie, Sarah's Choice, due to be released soon.

St. James plays the role of Sarah Collins, a "young woman on the rise," up the ladder of success in career and relationship, when she suddenly finds herself pregnant.

In the story, her character must weed through the many differing opinions being thrown at her regarding her situation, and is unsure of what to do; when she receives some prophetic insight from God.
